The Aldrich Contemporary Art Museum and the Ridgefield Arts Council Present:

Thriving Through the Arts: The College Admissions Process for Musicians, Actors, Dancers and Visual Artists

Sunday, April 23, 1 - 3 PM @ Ridgefield Library

Calling all high school students (and their parents) who are interested in learning more about the college admissions process for performing and visual artist!

College consultant Candace Channing, who is herself an internationally acclaimed flutist, will moderate an introductory session. This will be followed by break-out sessions in each of the four disciplines, where more specific questions will be addressed by panelists that include teachers, university professors, practitioners and students and parents who have recently been through the process. The afternoon will conclude with refreshments and time for networking and more informal Q & A.

Topics covered will include:

- Major versus non-major
- BA versus BFA
- Resumes
- Work sample requirements such as portfolios, audition recordings and much more!
